DEPARTMENT NAME: Noncredit (Academic & Workforce Connections)

SUBJECT/DISCIPLINE NAME (CB01): BSICSKL

COURSE NUMBER: 075CE

COURSE TITLE (CB02): Introduction to Post-Secondary Education
Max 68 characters including punctuation and spaces

COURSE CATALOG DESCRIPTION -- Provide a brief description of the course, including an overview of the topics covered:

Checklist:

- Course number and title
- Status (noncredit versus credit or others)
- A content/objective description, a short paragraph (course description) that provides a well-developed overview of topics covered. It should be thorough enough to establish the comparability of the course to those at other colleges and to convey the role of the course in the curriculum as well as to distinguish it from other courses at the college. It should be brief enough to encourage a quick read. To save space, many colleges use phrases rather than complete sentences. For noncredit courses that may lead to credit courses, it is a good idea to consider the catalog descriptions for the common receiving programs or institutions to promote a logical pathway for students intending this route.
- Course type (lecture, lab, activity, special topics, etc.), and contact hours
- Fulfills a certificate of completion, competency or high school graduation requirements
- Ability to articulate or prepare for credit coursework

This course introduces students to the opportunities and benefits post-secondary education offers them. This course helps dispel many of the myths and reduce information overload that may discourage students and their caregivers from applying to and attending post-secondary education institutions. Students will learn tips and strategies that will help them select and successfully apply to post-secondary institutions that best fit their education and career goals and needs.

JUSTIFICATION/NEEDS & PURPOSE OF COURSE:

Enter a brief description of the background and rationale for the course. This might include a description of a degree or certificate for which the course is required or the relationship of this course to other courses in the same or other disciplines. Please note that a justification stating "student need" will not suffice.

SECTION II - COURSE CONTENT AND OBJECTIVES

COURSE CONTENT AND OBJECTIVES Outline the topics included in the lab portion of the course (Outline reflects course description, all topics covered in class). Add more lines as needed.

• The content element contains a complete list of all topics to be taught in the course. The list should be arranged by topic with sub-headings. Content items should be subject based.

Skills and applications are used to reinforce and develop concepts, each objective should be broad in scope, not too detailed, narrow, or specific.

INSTRUCTION AND EVALUATION, add more lines as needed.

• Methods of Instruction - The focus should be about describing what the students will be doing and experiencing, not only with respect to the instructor, but in some cases with respect to each other and with their environment. The methods of instruction used are appropriate to the objectives. If an objective is to "physically perform," then lecture as the sole method for learning is not enough. The assignments and methods of instruction and evaluation must be appropriate to the stated objectives.

• Methods of Evaluation - The bases for evaluating assignments are given, and relate to skills and abilities in objectives. Knowledge of required material should constitute a significant portion of the evaluation as reflected in assignments and methods of evaluation. Please note that while noncredit courses do not produce grades that would be "credited" into a student record, this in no way obviates the critical need for the course design to comprehensively include student evaluation and feedback.
