CLASS HOURS: Under "total hours per term," indicate the total number of hours the average student will need to complete the course objectives in section II. To determine the number of standard hours per week, divide the total hours by 18.

	Total Hours per term	Standard Hours per week (total hours per term divided by 18 weeks)
Lecture hours:	36	2
Lab hours:	0	0
Total hours:	36	2

REPEATABILITY (Number of times the course can be repeated): 3

How does the repetition of this course meet Title 5, section 58161 requirements? A course may be repeatable when, "course content differs each time it is offered, and that the student who repeats it is gaining an expanded educational experience for one of the following reasons: (A) Skills or proficiencies are enhanced by supervised repetition and practice within class periods; or (B) Active participatory experience in individual study or group assignments is the basic means by which learning objectives are obtained."

Every three years the code updates and the content will change, to remain employable the person must obtain 36 hours' minimum of update training. This will meet that requirement. An average career is 30 years, by allowing this course to be repeated every 3 years for 10 cycles this course would meet the industry needs.

LIMITATIONS ON ENROLLMENT (see Title 5, section 58106 for policy on allowable limitations. Other appropriate statutory or regulatory requirements may also apply):

None

 D – Possibly Occupational E- Non-occupational

SAM Code:

- A - Apprenticeship: Courses designed for an indentured apprentice, which must have the approval of the State of California, Department of Industrial Relations, Division of Apprenticeship Standards.
- B - Advanced Occupational: Courses taken by students in the advanced stages of their occupational programs. Courses should be offered in one specific occupational area.
- C - Clearly Occupational: Courses generally taken by students in the middle stages of their programs, which should be of difficulty level sufficient to detract "drop-ins." Courses may be offered in several occupational programs within a broad area. The "C" priority, however, should also be used for courses within a specific program area when the criteria for "B" classification are not met. A "C" level course should provide the student with entry-level job skills.
- D - Possibly Occupational: "D" courses are those taken by students in the beginning stages of their occupational programs. The "D" priority can also be used for service (or survey) courses for other occupational Programs.
- E- Non-occupational.

SECTION II - COURSE CONTENT AND OBJECTIVES

COURSE CONTENT AND OBJECTIVES Outline the topics included in the lab portion of the course (Outline reflects course description, all topics covered in class). Add more lines as needed.

• The content element contains a complete list of all topics to be taught in the course. The list should be arranged by topic with sub-headings. Content items should be subject based.

• Objectives: (Include Total Hours for each Topic), should be stated in terms of what students will be able to do, should clearly connect to achievement of the course goals, should be concise but complete: ten objectives might be too many; one is not enough, should use verbs showing active learning, theory, principles, and concepts must be adequately covered. Skills and applications are used to reinforce and develop concepts, each objective should be broad in scope, not too detailed, narrow, or specific.

INSTRUCTION AND EVALUATION, add more lines as needed.

• Methods of Instruction - The focus should be about describing what the students will be doing and experiencing, not only with respect to the instructor, but in some cases with respect to each other and with their environment. The methods of instruction used are appropriate to the objectives. If an objective is to "physically perform," then lecture as the sole method for learning is not enough. The assignments and methods of instruction and evaluation must be appropriate to the stated objectives.

• Methods of Evaluation - The bases for evaluating assignments are given, and relate to skills and abilities in objectives. Knowledge of required material should constitute a significant portion of the evaluation as reflected in assignments and methods of evaluation. Please note that while noncredit courses do not produce grades that would be "credited" into a student record, this in no way obviates the critical need for the course design to comprehensively include student evaluation and feedback.
